

THOMAS R. DONAHUE

EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT, AFL-CIO

Thomas R. Donahue has served as Executive Assistant to AFL-CIO President George Meany since May, 1973.

He formerly served as Executive Secretary and First Vice President of the Service Employees from January, 1969 to May, 1973.

Prior to 1969, he had served as U. S. Assistant Secretary of Labor for Labor Management Relations, a post to which he was appointed by former President Lyndon B. Johnson in January, 1967. In that capacity, he was responsible for the Department's labor relations activities and was Administrator of the Department's Labor-Management Services Administration.

Before his appointment to the Labor Department, Donahue served for seven years as Executive Assistant to the President of the Service Employees.

He was European Labor Program Coordinator for Radio Free Europe from 1957 to 1960 and served as Contract Director and Assistant to the President of Local 32B, Service Employees International Union from 1949 to 1957.

He is a member of the Committee on Social Development and World Peace, U. S. Catholic Conference and is Chairman of the Executive Committee and member of the Board of Directors, Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, Inc.